

LSU AgCenter East Carroll Parish Profile

Report to Stakeholders January 2026

ABOUT THE LSU AGCENTER

The LSU AgCenter is dedicated to providing innovative research, information and education to improve people's lives. Working in a statewide network of parish extension offices, research stations and academic departments, the LSU AgCenter helps Louisiana citizens make the best use of natural resources, protect the environment, enhance agricultural enterprises, and develop human and community resources.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Nutrition and Community Health

Nutrition and Community Health agents and educators are improving the overall health of residents by helping to reduce chronic diseases which are related to poor nutrition and sedentary lifestyles and improving the health outcomes in which Louisiana has traditionally ranked so low. This community-based work helps individuals and families adopt the nutrition and physical activity principles we have long been teaching.

4-H Youth Development

The East Carroll Parish Youth Development Program provides diverse opportunities for youth and adult volunteers to make a difference in their lives and that of their communities. Young people acquire valuable knowledge and life skills through participation in local, parish, state, and national programs. We offer many opportunities for youth and family participation, including 4-H workshops, overnight camps, community service and service-learning activities, project training, age-appropriate competitions, and many other fun and educational activities throughout the year.

Agriculture and Natural Resources

East Carroll Parish is the Northern boundary of the fertile Mississippi River Delta making us an agriculture-driven economy. Producers are continually facing fluctuating commodity prices along with increasing input costs, making profit margins tight. Crop production demonstrations, including variety trials, and irrigation efficiency are conducted on local producers' fields along with soil fertility trials to promote stewardship of land use and nutrient management. Assistance with home gardens is provided as one of the many services for East Carroll Parish.
